

COVID-19: GET AHEAD OF THE CURVE WITH MICROLEARNING

During this global pandemic, we have heard countless times that "we are in this together" however, the reality is that each person's actions will ultimately influence our future. There is an abundant amount of misinformation being shared among individuals and the media.

Edvance Life Skills is equipped to quickly and effectively educate students on the impact of their decisions and how to make the proper choices going forward.

Implement today: 603-471-3901

What our microlearning platform offers

Edvance Life Skills is committed to producing valuable eLearning content for students to build stronger life competencies.

- An extensive course catalog of content ranging from Social Media Etiquette to Stress Management and beyond.
- Easy to update—issues arise and change on campus and so can our microlearning offerings. They are designed to stay current and to stay relevant to the lives of a modern-day students.
- Student-centric formats adapt to match individual learning styles which gives users timely flexibility to personalize their lessons
- During this time of crisis we would like to extend our service for government and student use free of charge.

Accessible Learning Management

Our courses are easily accessible across mobile and desktop platforms.

High Impact

Microlearning is 80% more likely to be retained compared to information conveyed through traditional methods.

Reliable support

At a time of so much uncertainty, Edvance Life Skills is hosted on a reliable infrastructure trusted by 65% of Fortune 500 Companies